

Grand Western Archery Society

CONSTITUTION

MARCH 2025

I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Clause 1: Name

The Society shall be called the Grand Western Archery Society, hereinafter referred to as the Society.

Clause 2: Objects

The objects of the Society shall be the promotion and encouragement of Archery in all its forms, other than bow hunting, throughout the Grand Western Region (hereinafter referred to as the Region). The Region shall comprise the Counties of Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Gloucestershire, Somerset and Wiltshire or such other local government areas as shall from time to time be determined by the Society in consultation with the Grand National Archery Society. The Society recognises the County Organisations listed from time to time in Appendix A as sharing its responsibility for these objects within their respective boundaries.

Clause 3: Affiliated Clubs and County Organisations

The Society is recognised, in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of the National Governing Body for Archery in the United Kingdom, "The Grand National Archery Society", (GNAS) trading as Archery GB (AGB) as the Regional Society governing archery within the Grand Western Region.

The Society recognises the county organisations listed in Appendix A as the county associations responsible for managing archery within the counties making up the Grand Western Region.

Any Archery Club which has compatible objectives to those of the Society, which is situated within the boundaries of the Region, and has affiliated all its GNAS members to its County Organisation and the Society, shall be eligible for affiliation to the Society, provided that the constituent County Organisations and Affiliated Clubs do not include in their rules any provisions which conflict with those of the Society.

Clause 4: Rules of Shooting

The Rules of Shooting prescribed from time to time by the Grand National Archery Society shall be accepted as the Rules of Shooting of the Society.

Clause 5: Championships

The Society shall hold Regional Championship Meetings, and such other Archery Meetings as the Regional Council may decide.

Clause 6: Teams

The Regional Council of the Society shall determine whether a team will enter a shoot as representatives of the Society. If the entry of a team is so determined, then the Regional Council of the Society shall appoint a team manager who shall be responsible for the selection and management of the team at that shoot.

Clause 7: Postal Address

The postal address of the Society shall be that of the Honorary Secretary or such other address as may be decided by the Regional Council from time to time.

Clause 8: Funds and Property

The funds and property of the Society shall be vested in the Chairman of the Regional Council, the Honorary Secretary and the Honorary Treasurer for the time being as Trustees of the Society. All monies received on behalf of the Society shall remain the property of the Society and there shall be no distribution of such funds among members.

In the event of the requirement to dissolve the Society, the Regional Council will take independent legal advice on proceedings and potential outcomes and then an Extraordinary General Meeting will be called in accordance with Clause 40.

Clause 9: Examination of Accounts

The financial books and records of the Society, as prepared by the Treasurer, shall be passed to a suitably qualified accountant/firm of accountants for formal accounts to be prepared and any tax liabilities calculated. This is to be done annually and the accounts drawn up to 31st December each year. The definition of "suitably qualified" shall comprise members of the ICAEW (Institute of Chartered Accountants of England & Wales) or ICAS (Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland) or the ACCA (Association of Chartered Certified Accountants).

Clause 10: Alteration of the Constitution

Details of any proposal to amend the Constitution of the Society shall be notified to the Honorary Secretary not later than the first of February preceding the next Annual General Meeting or at least one month before an Extraordinary General Meeting convened in accordance with Clause 40. Such proposal may be put by any of the following:

- a) The Regional Council
- b) A County Organisation
- c) Any two or more Affiliated Clubs provided that in the case of (b) and (c) the proposal must be in writing and signed by the Secretary of the County or the Secretaries of the Affiliated Clubs as the case may be.

Clause 11: Majority required to alter the Constitution

The Constitution of the Society shall not be rescinded or amended except by a majority of two-thirds of those present and voting at an Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting summoned for that purpose.

II: MEMBERSHIP

Clause 12: Categories of Membership.

Membership of the Society shall be as follows:
